13. YOUR MONEY

- 13.1. Your money shall be treated, at all times, in accordance with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements regarding the handling of Client Money.
- 13.2. Unless otherwise indicated, we will deposit your money in one or more segregated accounts held with a financial institution within or outside the European Economic Area ('EEA'), separated from Kimbo's money.
- 13.3. By accepting the Agreement and commencing a business relationship with us, you expressly provide your consent for keeping your funds in an omnibus account. This means that all Client Money is treated as belonging to our clients and under no circumstance, we will use it to meet any of our obligations, at any time.

- 13.4. An omnibus account means that your funds will be pooled with money belonging to other clients in a Segregated Account.
- 13.5. In general, accounts held with financial institutions, including omnibus accounts, face various risks. For instance, in the event of default, no single Client will have a claim against a specific sum in a specific account in the event of insolvency or default of the financial institution. Any Client's claim shall be against the money held in the Segregated Account according to the laws of that jurisdiction. Under such circumstances, the enforcement of the respective national deposit guarantee scheme may apply without consideration of the ultimate beneficial owners of an omnibus account.
- 13.6. Client Money held in Segregated Account(s) may be exposed to obligations of Kimbo connected with the positions of other Clients.
- 13.7. We are a member of the Guarantee Fund of the National Forex Center. The Fund creates a security deposit on the accounts with special operation mode, in the amount of no less than 50% of clients' funds.
- 13.8. We will exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence in the selection, appointment and periodic review of the financial institutions with which we will hold Client Money, in accordance with our legal and regulatory obligations.
- 13.9. To this end, we take into account the credit rating of the institution(s) prior to depositing any Client Money and take reasonable steps to monitor their credit risk periodically.
- 13.10. We may use multiple institutions to ensure diversification and allocate internal percentage limits for each institution we decide to use. We will give instructions to these institution(s) regarding the transfer and movement(s) of Client Money.
- 13.11. Where you have an open position, we will set-off any unrealized losses incurred against any of the Client Money held by us, in any account. This means that we may transfer any or part of any unrealized losses incurred by you from the Segregated Account to an account of Kimbo. Conversely, we may transfer any unrealized profits incurred by you because of an open position from an account of ours to the Omnibus Account.
- 13.12. Provided, that we comply with our legal and regulatory obligations, we can hold Client Money outside of the EEA. Any such Client Money will be subject to the laws of that territory and therefore your rights differ accordingly. According to applicable legislation, we will apply adequate organizational arrangements to comply with any requirement concerning Client Money and we will exercise all due skill, care and diligence in the selection, appointment and periodic review of the third party and of the third party and of the arrangements for the holding and safekeeping of those financial instruments. Yet, we will not be held responsible for the solvency, acts or omissions of any institution with which Client Money is held, regardless of the jurisdiction.
- 13.13. We will not pay any interest on any Client Money held on your behalf, regardless of whether we receive interest on those deposits from the financial institution(s) with which we hold the Client Money or not.
- 13.14. We will carry out reconciliation of funds on a regular basis as per applicable legislation and in line with our internal policies and procedures, and we will proceed with any required transfer to or from the Segregated Account on the next business day, unless this is not possible for any reason.

- 13.15. Any amounts corresponding to liabilities you have towards us, including liabilities arising because of abusing the negative balance protection, can be deducted directly from the balance of any of your Account(s).
- 13.16. You have the right to withdraw any part of the Client Money equal to the free Margin available in your Account(s), subject to any applicable restrictions regarding its operation, and any other right or limitation on such withdrawal. We reserve the right to reject a withdrawal request in instances where we have reasonable grounds to believe that the said instruction is being placed to abuse our Negative Balance Protection Policy ('NBP'). Please refer to our Website for further information on withdrawal times.
- 13.17. Any transfers shall only be effective after our systems have made the relevant credit or debit of the funds to the relevant Account(s), and whilst we will make all reasonable efforts to ensure any transfers are made effective in a timely manner, we cannot guarantee how long this process may take. It is your responsibility to provide us with complete and accurate information -in a prompt manner- to ensure that you do not experience any delays or other losses.
- 13.18. Any monies you transfer to us for the purposes of funding your Account shall be deposited in your Account on the Value Date, net of any transfer fees or other charges imposed by the financial institution(s), or any intermediary involved in the process of sending or receiving the funds. We may, at our sole discretion and under no obligation, credit funds that are still in transfer before the Value Date to your Account. We will try our best to ensure that any transfers are processed without any delay, provided, that this is within our reasonable control.
- 13.19. We will deposit funds into your Account only after we are satisfied, amongst other criteria, that the funds are being sent by you or your Authorized Representative from an account in your name, and that the funds do not breach any term contained within the Agreement and/or the law.
- 13.20. We reserve the right to request additional information and/or documentation, at any time, in order to be satisfied that your dealings with us, including, but not limited to deposits and withdrawals, are legitimate or for any other reason to fulfil and comply with our regulatory obligations. It is your responsibility to provide us with complete and accurate information and your failure to do so may result in delays with processing any requests, and/or any of your requests may be rejected.
- 13.21. Further, if we are not satisfied as to the above and reject an incoming transaction, we reserve the right to return the funds to the sender, net of any transfer fees or charges which we may incur. Any refund will be sent to the same source from where the funds were received. We will only deviate from this policy where we have been satisfied that this will not be contrary to any of our policies and applicable legislation.
- 13.22. It is our policy to ensure that all withdrawals, either in part or in full of the funds you deposit with us is sent to the same source where the funds came from. Where we are unable to do so, for whatever reason, and subject to any restriction under the regulatory regime, we shall return the funds as requested in part or in full, net of any transfer fees, charges or other deductions incurred by us.
- 13.23. We reserve the right to accept or decline any funding and/or withdrawal request by you depending on the payment method you choose, and we may suggest to you an alternative for your request. More information on our accepted payment methods can be found on our Website. For instance, where a client has requested to withdraw with a different method compared to the method he/she used to deposit, the request may be rejected, and you will be permitted to withdraw via another method you have used in the past.

- 13.24. You understand that we should process any funding request in accordance with applicable rules and regulations, therefore any requests, which are not in line with our legal obligations, may not be processed. For example, this might include instances where we are not satisfied with the documentation provided by you. In this case, we reserve the right to reverse the transaction in part or in full, net of any transfer fees, charges or other deductions incurred by us. You understand that there may be instances where we will be unable to provide you with an explanation as to why we cannot proceed with your request.
- 13.25. You shall make any requests relating to the administration of your Account(s) via your Client Member Area of our Website.
- 13.26. Further information about the processing times can be found on our Website, however, this information is provided for indicative purposes only. You understand that there may be instances where we cannot guarantee these times because of events outside of our control.
- 13.27. Where you receive money from us by mistake, you agree to hold such amount of money in trust for the benefit of Kimbo or the beneficial owner. In the event you use any funds sent to you by mistake, we will have a claim on those funds, together with any profit derived from the use of those funds, on behalf of the beneficial owner. In the same way, we shall not compensate you for any losses incurred by you because of you using the said funds. The claim for the full amount shall remain.
- 13.28. Where we are required to do so by law and/or any applicable rules, we reserve the right to deduct or credit any amount from your Account(s). We will exercise our best efforts to ensure that we do not deduct an amount unless this is necessary. Examples of when this right may be exercised includes instances where we offer instruments, which we may be required to withhold part of the profit for tax purposes.
- 13.29. You understand and accept that we have the right to set-off any liability of yours under the Agreement. Where the liabilities to be set-off are expressed in different currencies, we may convert the said liabilities at a market rate of exchange.
- 13.30. You understand and accept that we have the right to net-off any amount due by deducting it from your Account(s). Where this is done, we will consider the obligation as satisfied and discharged. We reserve our rights on any obligation, which cannot be considered satisfied.
- 13.31. Where your Account is inactive for a period of five (5) years with a positive balance (i.e. there are funds available on your Account) and during that period no transactions have been carried out in relation to the account or on the instructions of the holder of the account and we are unable to contact you after we take reasonable efforts to achieve this, we will have the right to cease treating those funds as Client Money and make a deduction from your Account in accordance with paragraph 13.7. If you later make a valid claim to us, we may pay you any amount owed to you by us.
